Six mathematical "geniuses" comprising Marist's Math Team gallantly represent the school in mathematical competition throughout the Chicago area. Under the guidance of Mr. J. D. Santoni, these students augment their knowledge of mathematics with after school practice sessions.

$$\sin^2 X + \cos^2 x = 1$$

$$X = \frac{-b \pm \sqrt{b^2 - 4ac}}{2a}$$

$$(x-h)^2 + (y-k)^2 = R^2$$

Today in our age of acid rock and the sound of soul, it is a good feeling to know that classical and jazz music are still around. This is what the band is built on: the attempt to communicate a love for all types of music to the student body. Marist's band plays an important role in many of the school's sports activities, such as playing at half-time of football and basketball games. Without the band there would be a cultural dirth in our school, and it would be a mortal loss for the student body.

The Reala Farr Show, the card party, the fashion show—all are sterling examples of the work devotedly done by the Mothers' Club. President Ginia Fee and her staff are to be congratulated for a very successful year.

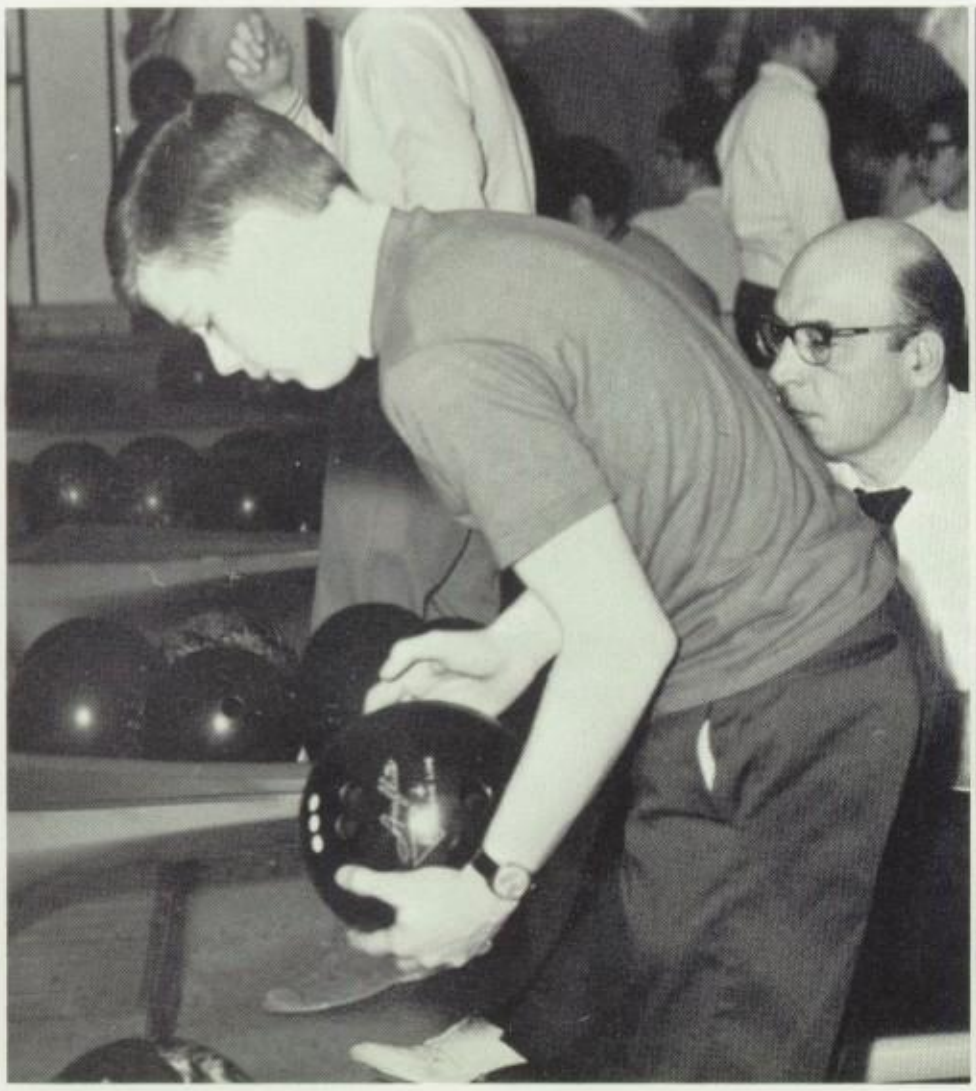
FATHER AND SON NIGHT . . .



FATHER-SON BOWLING

Bro. John Shanahan and the men of the Fathers' Club have realized another successful year of service to Marist High School. The student body is well-aware of the many activities which the Fathers' Club organizes to bring financial aid to the school and help strengthen family ties . . . but only the fathers themselves are aware of the work put into these activities. Kudos to the Fathers' Club for their devotion.

OFFICERS AND MODERATOR: John Shanahan, FMS, moderator; Bill Callahan, treasurer; Robert Quinn, senior vice-president; William Treacy, president; Wendell Crowell, freshman vice-president. Absent: Frank Bohac, secretary; Dick Cronin, junior vice-president; John Sweeney, sophomore vice-president.

One of the most memorable events of the Fathers' Club this year was the RED GARTER NIGHT held on February 6, 1970. It was on this evening that the parents, the faculty, and friends of Marist gathered together to sing to the music of Old Town's Red Garter Band. If consumption is a measure of success, let it be known that every drop of beer was sold!

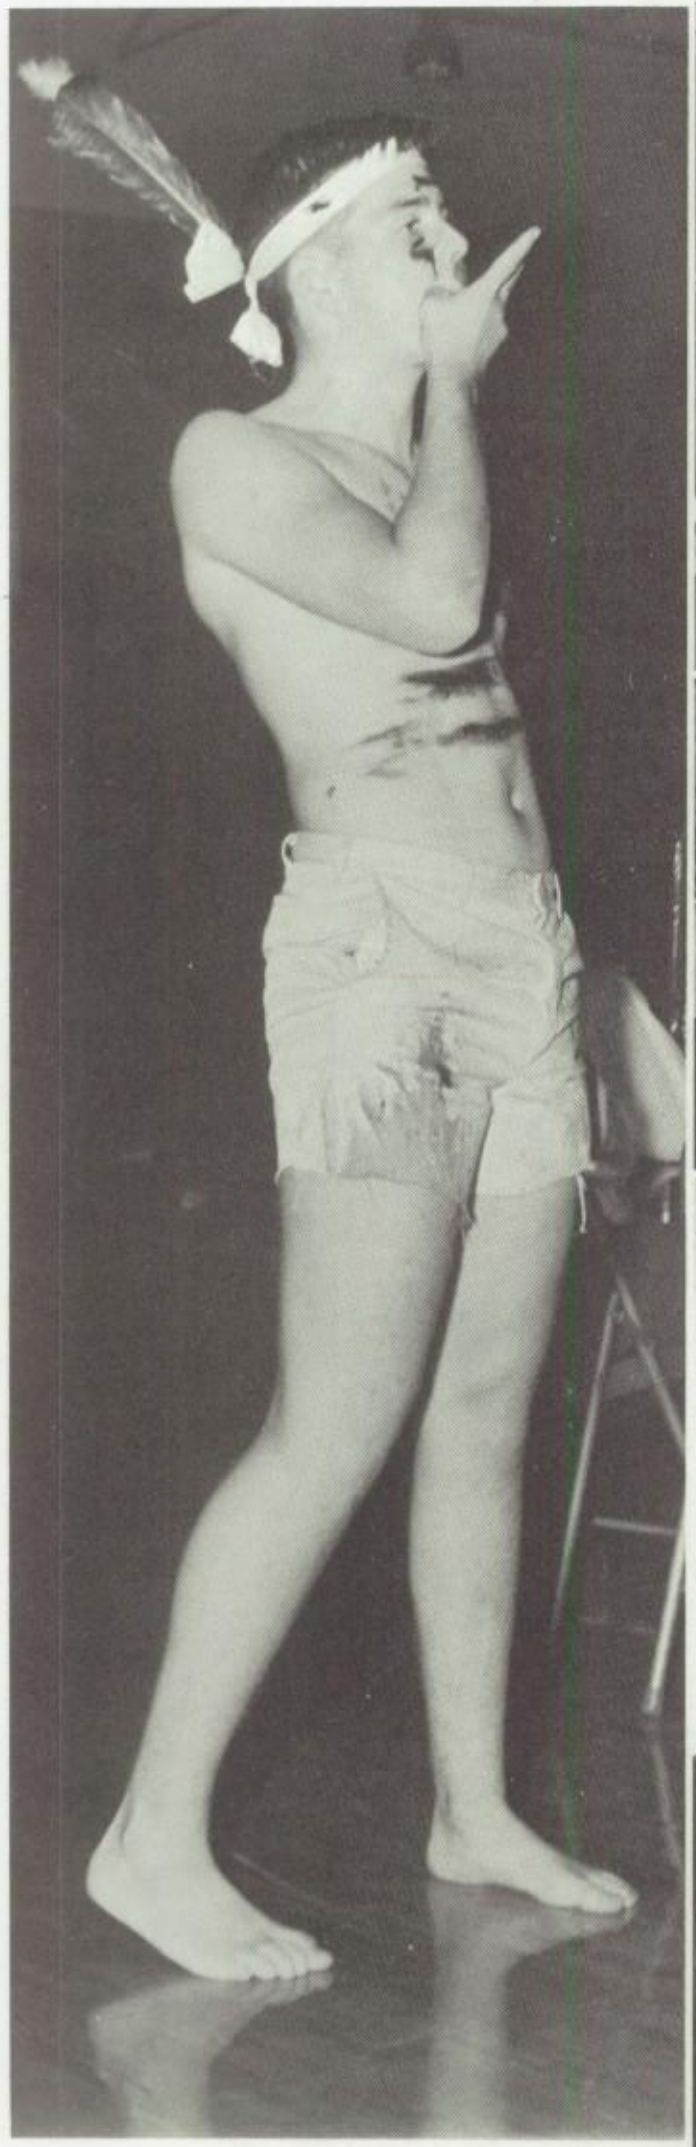
HOMECOMING

Homecoming is more than a rally, a dance, and a game, for these events are a means of expression. They express what we feel for the school and for each other. And though we were unsuccessful in our mud-drenched game against St. Pat's, we were triumphant in showing that we are Marist—and proud of it! The events of October 10-12, 1969, are to be remembered as a highpoint of Marist history: a rally that was school spirit incarnate, the hard work of the decorations committee, an "Age of Aquarius" dance, a "called-off" caravan that happened anyway, and a pigskin mudbath that lost us a game, but won us the right, with all of these, to say that "Redskin" means something and we have found what it means, and just try to make us lose it . . . !



TEC

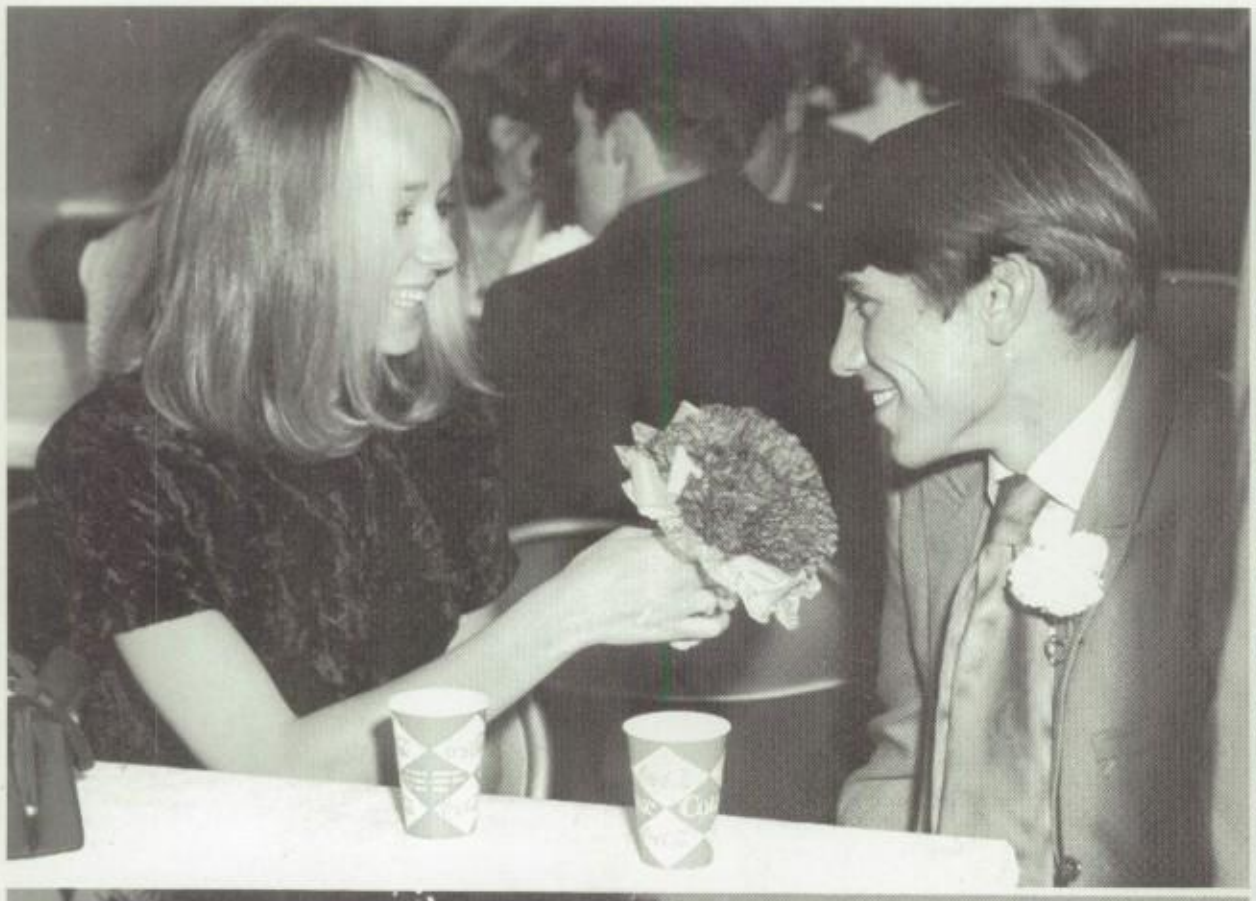
WOW! That's what they say about TEC. Few other words come near enough to describing it. But the men in the picture above know they have experienced something . . . something very valuable. TEC stands for Teenager Encounters Christ, and if Christ has been met it has been in a "deep" conversation, in the midst of tearing confusion, or even through a certain lady named Tina. If you don't understand, or if you're looking for something, then maybe you ought to try it yourself. So many Marist men can't be wrong.

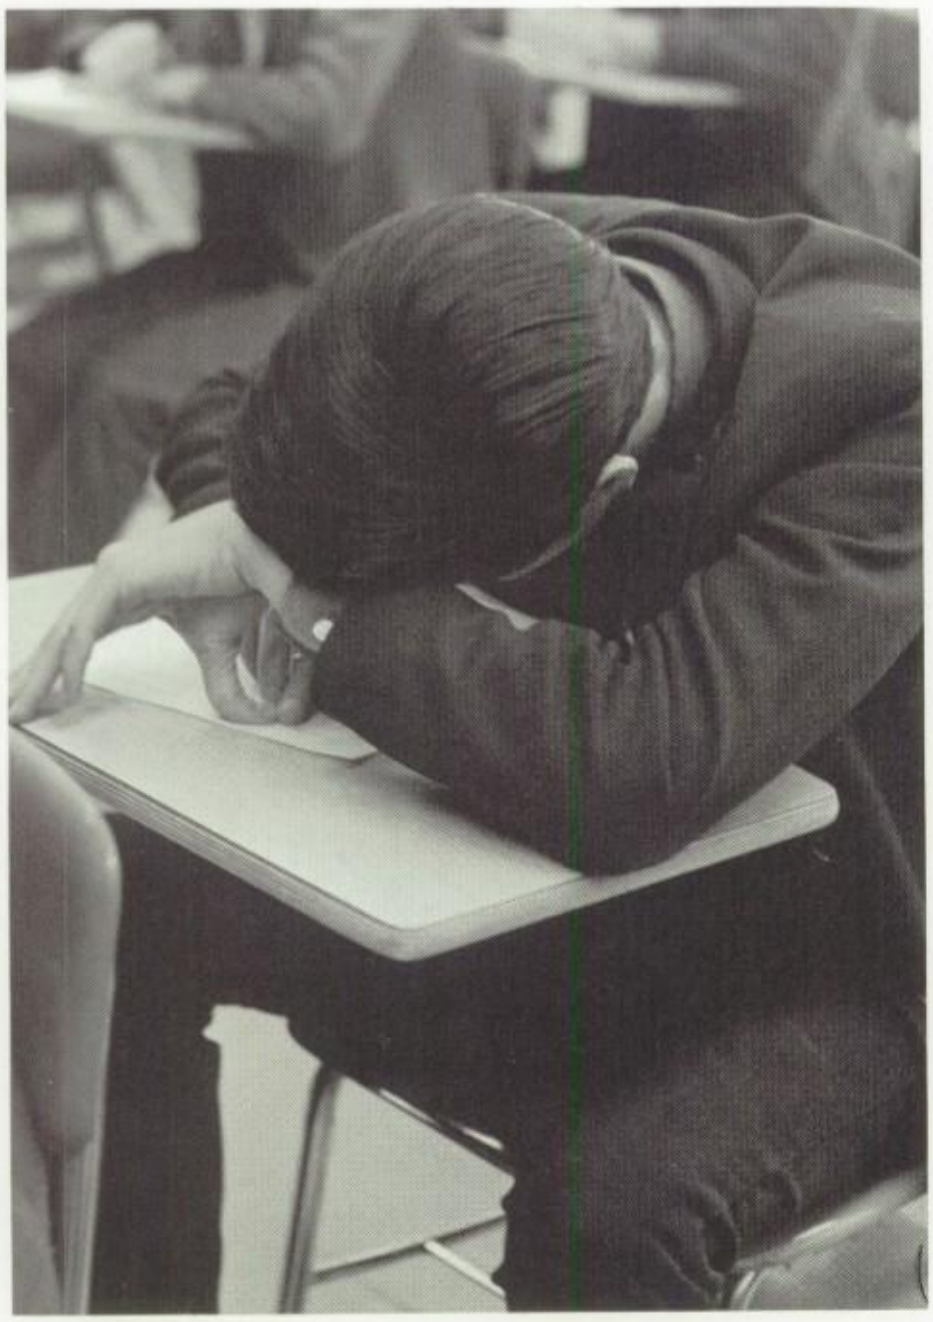
MARIST HALL

Marist Hall, at 4821 South Ellis Avenue, is the local training house for the Marist Brothers. Under the direction of Bro. Ronald Mulholland and the influence of Bro. Kenneth Marino and Bro. Eric Anderberg, candidates for the Marist Brothers learn here the basic values of community life. Marist Hall offers an open door and a warm, joyful atmosphere to neighbors and visiting Marist students, and has become a landmark of the Christian spirit in its neighborhood.

CHRISTMAS DANCE

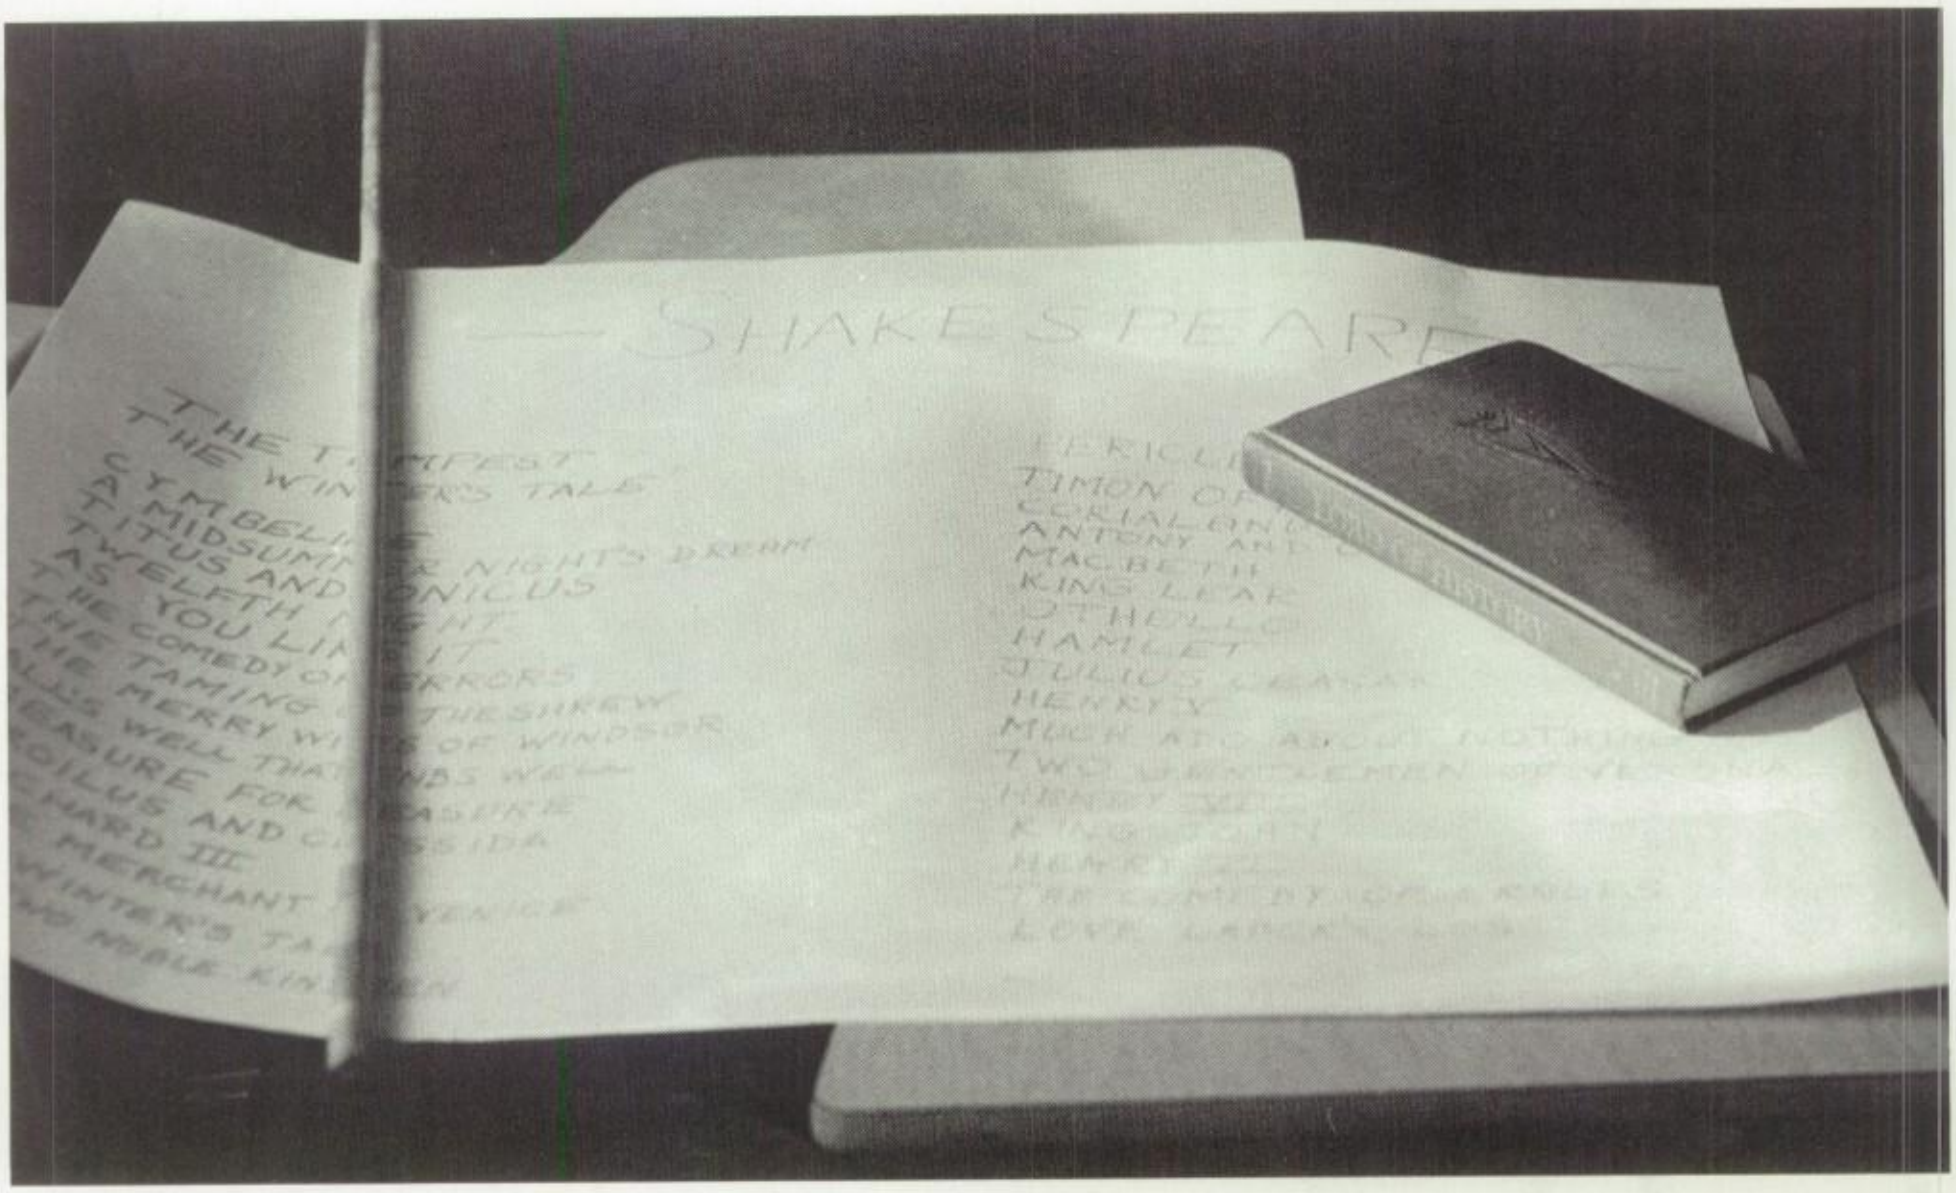


This year's Christmas Dance, held on December 27, 1969, proved to be a lively break in the holiday monotony of visiting with grandparents and third cousins. Three hundred couples danced to the music of the "South Side Water Guard" in the festively decorated cafeteria. The hallway and bandroom likewise had a yuletide air about them.



"Let's see . . . two fingers plus one finger is . . . ."

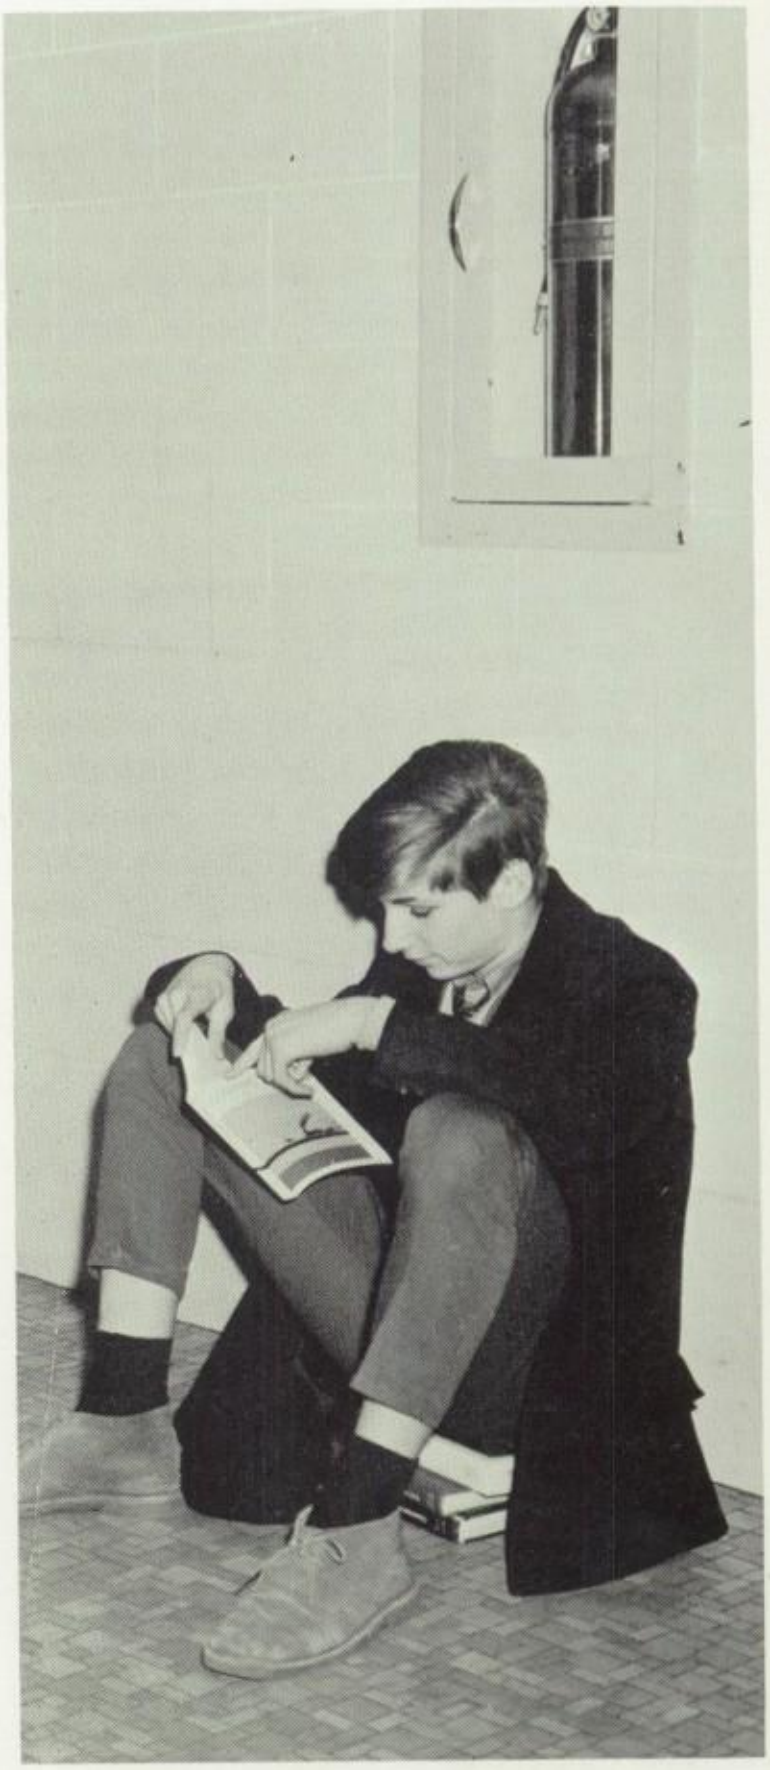
"They tell me La Rose is mixing up another batch!"

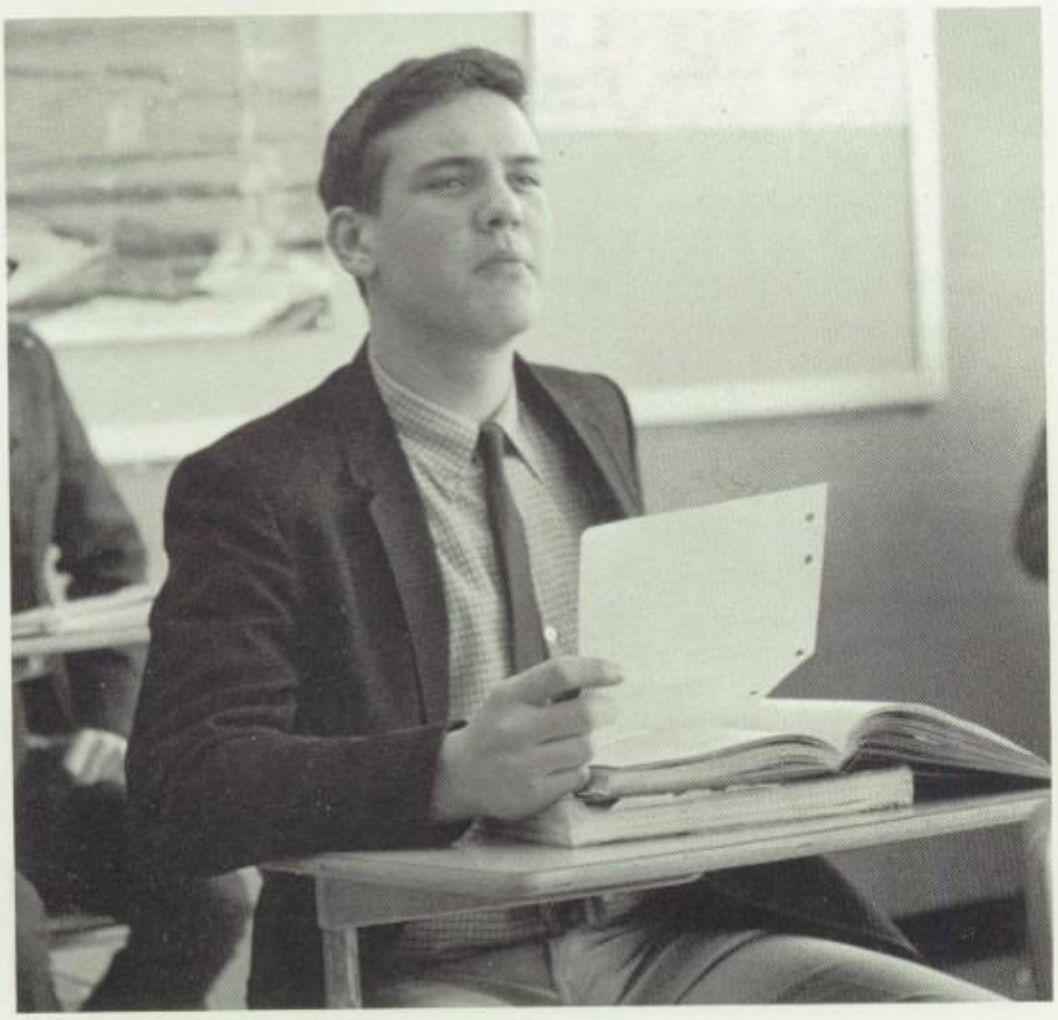


One-third of the English II reading list.

LEFT: "Whoopee! And he told them he was making aspirin!"

RIGHT: "Maybe if I sit on them long enough I can count on osmosis."

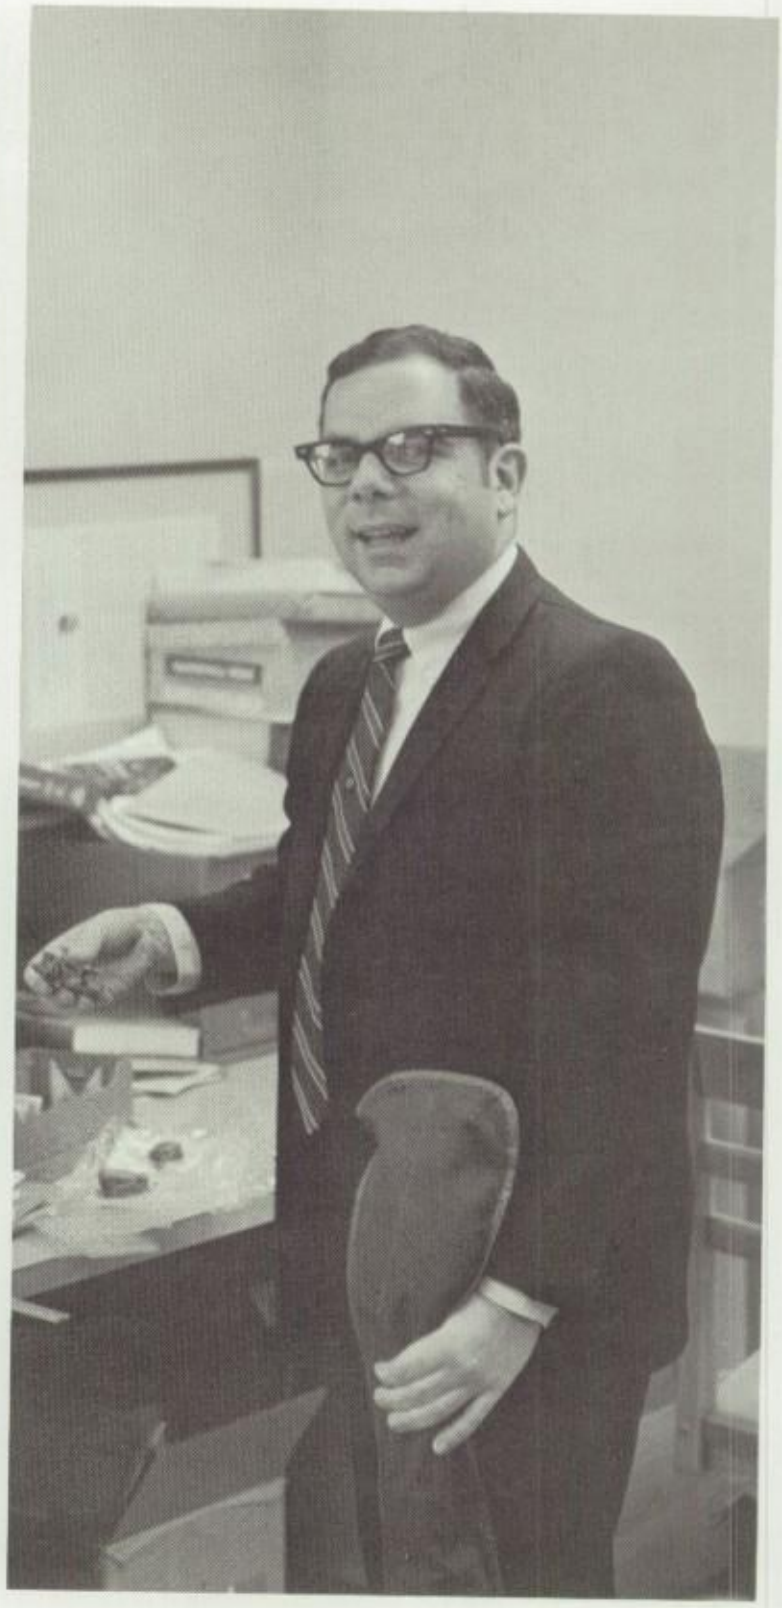




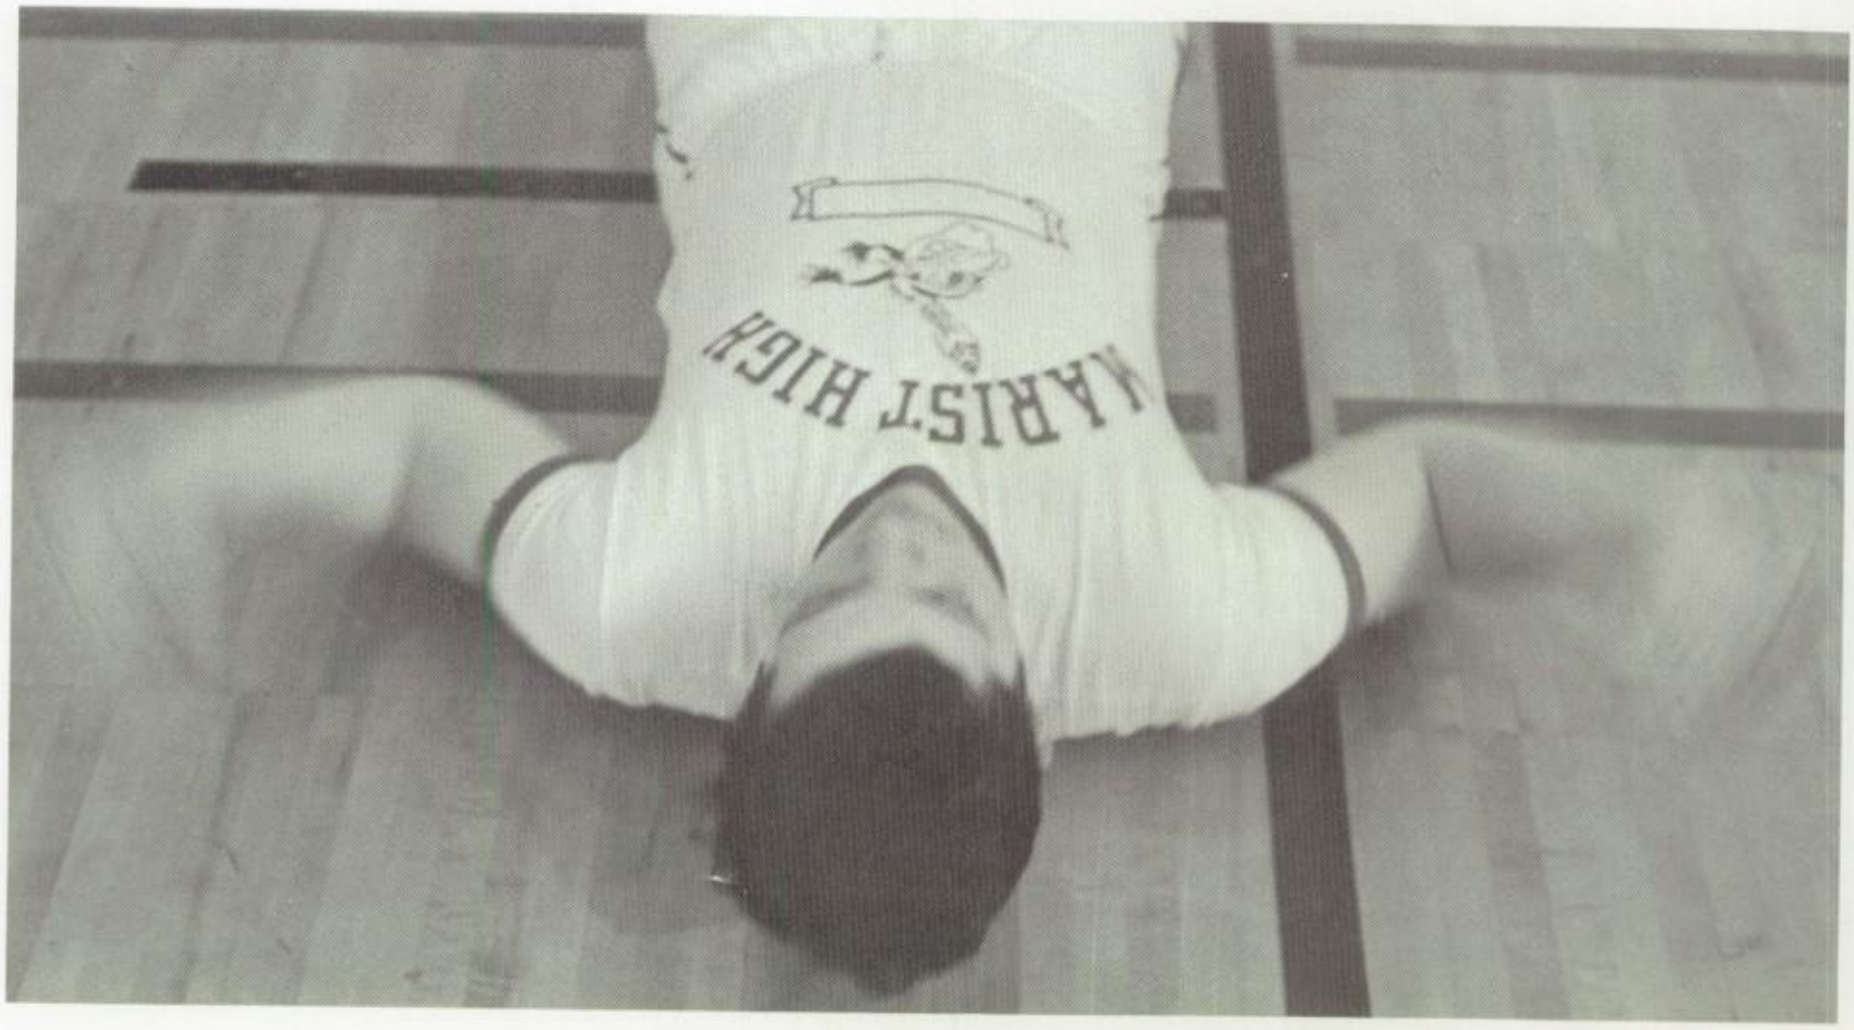
ABOVE: "Prove it to me, Bro.!"

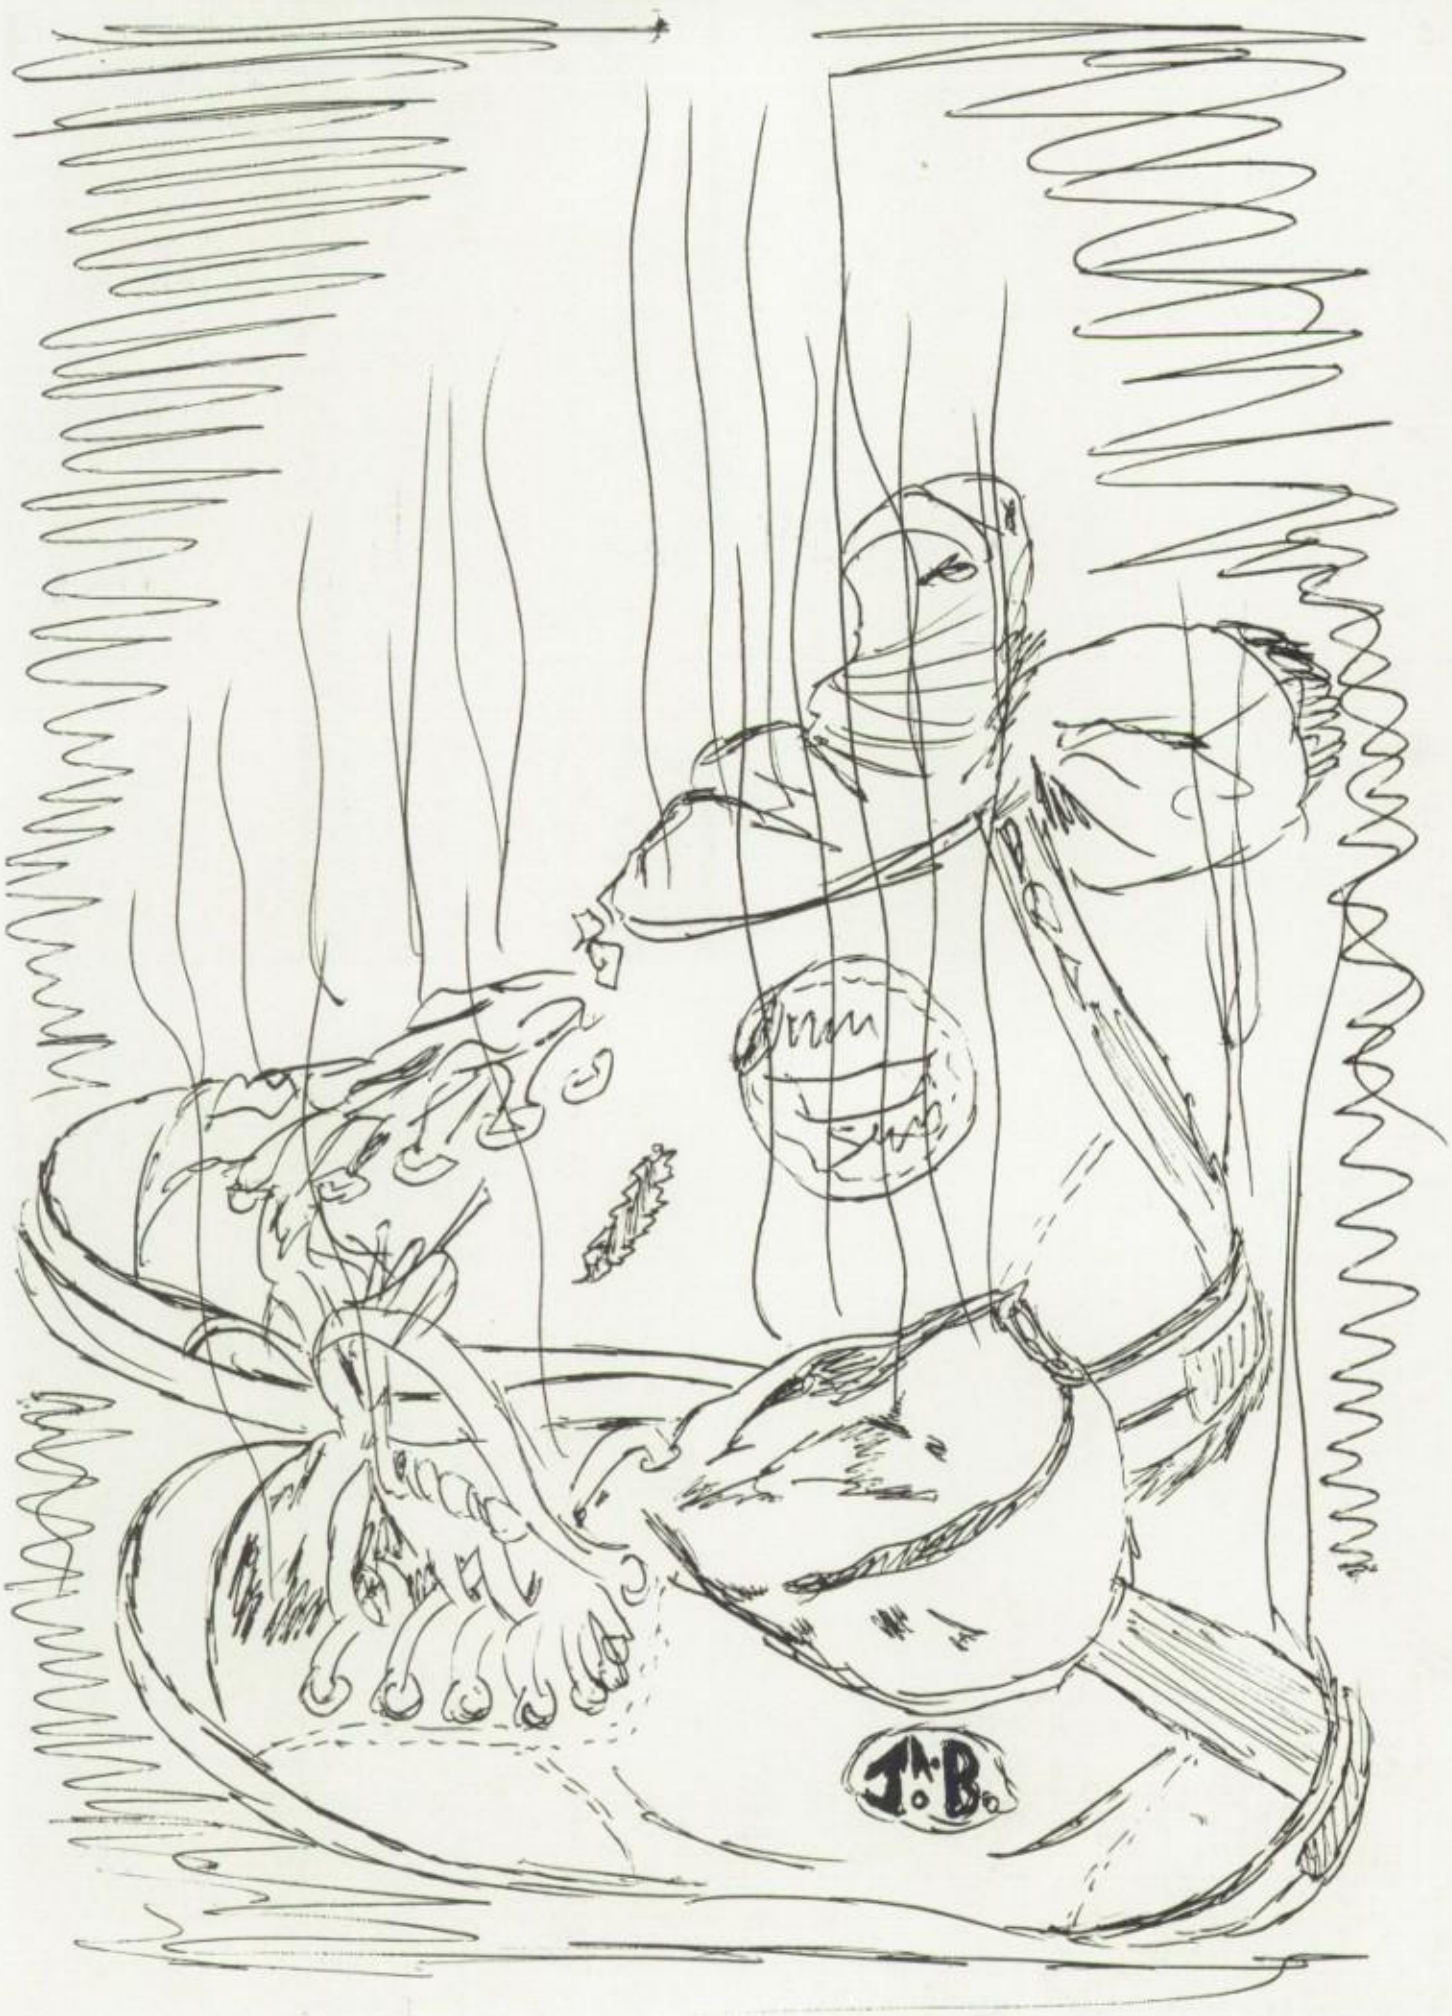
BELOW: And then the Brothers went into secular clothes . . . .

"Oooh!"



"Aaah!"

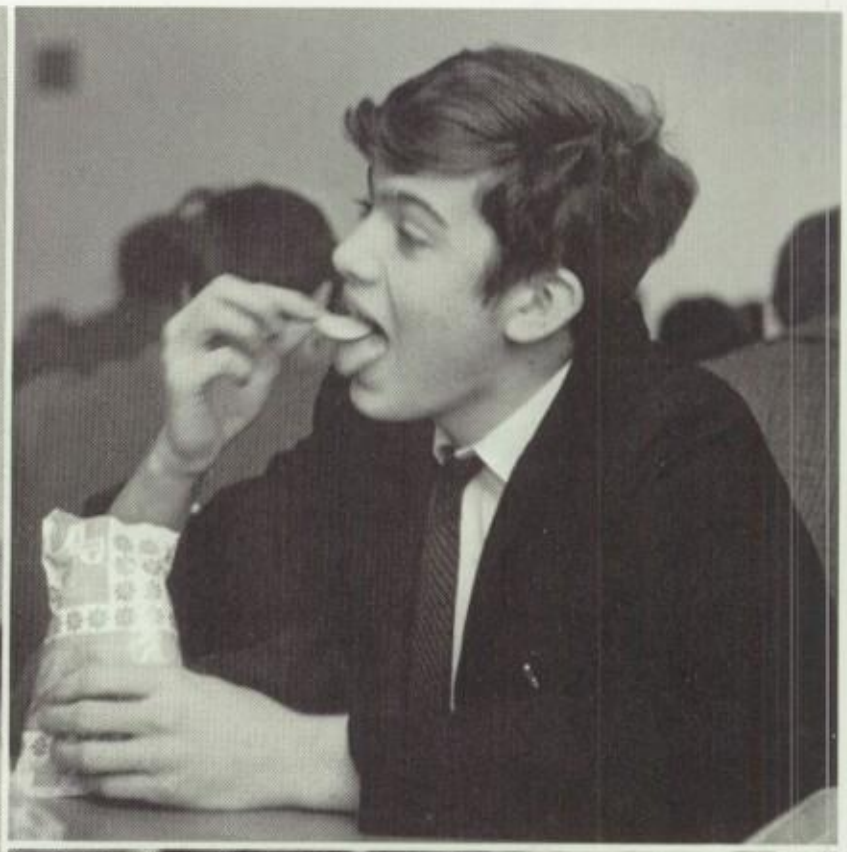


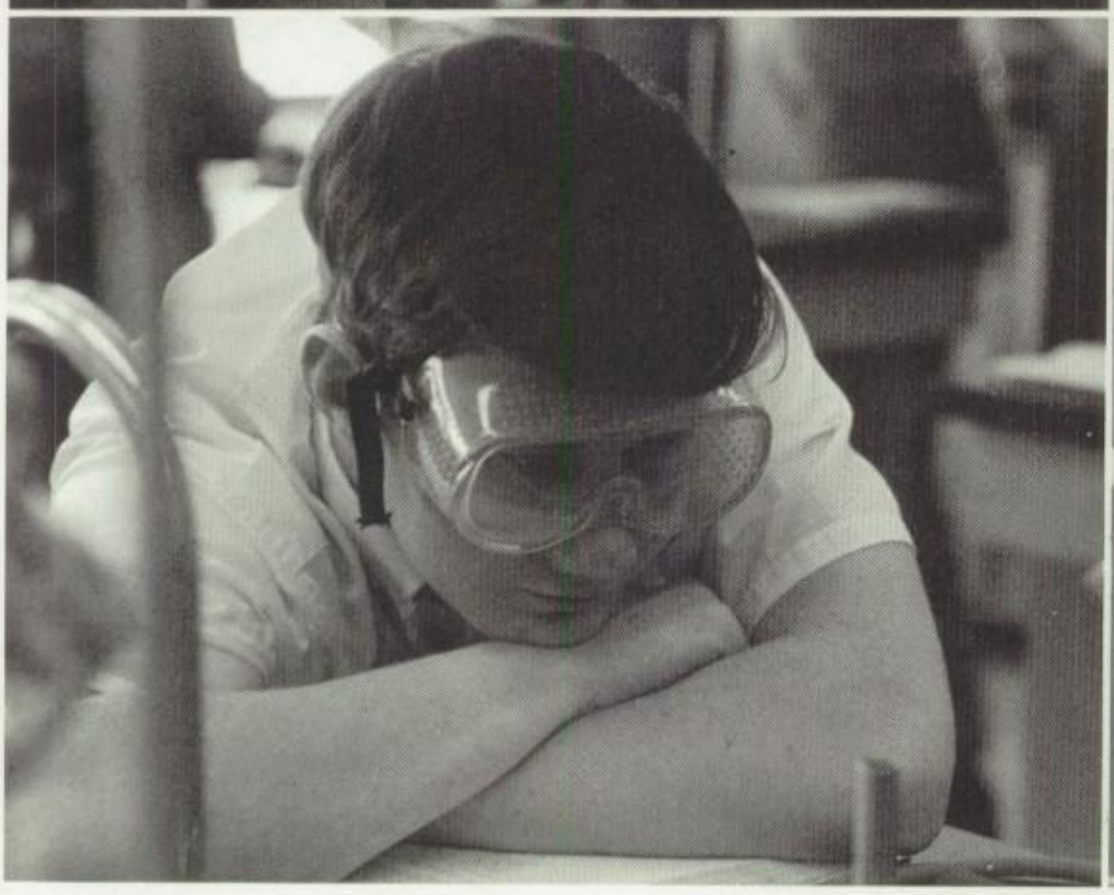


The picture and sketch are reminiscent of the after and before of personal hygiene. The olfactory impression left on us by a recently-used gym, the shower room, and many lockers about the school will never be forgotten. It is to this fragrant expression of mature manhood that this page is dedicated.

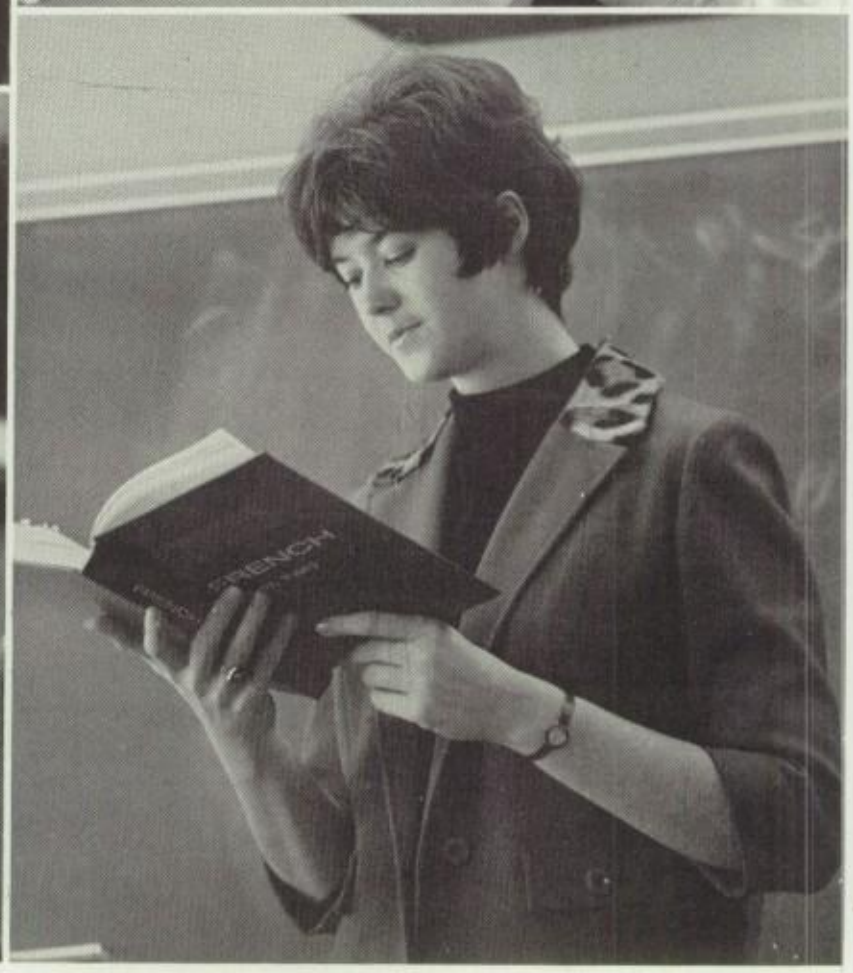
Let's see now, insubordination, disrespect, spitting on floor, not taking a shower . . .

If I can swallow it fast, maybe I won't taste it!



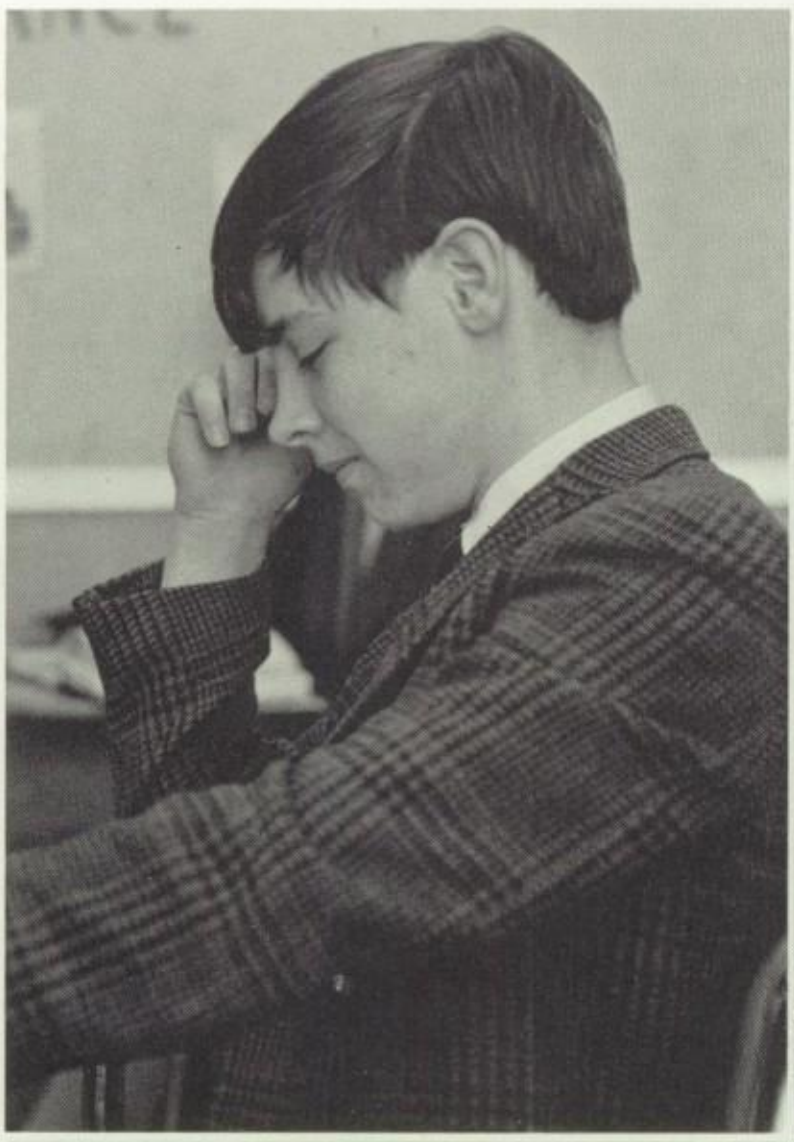


Boy, why can't I be Jacques Cousteau!!!

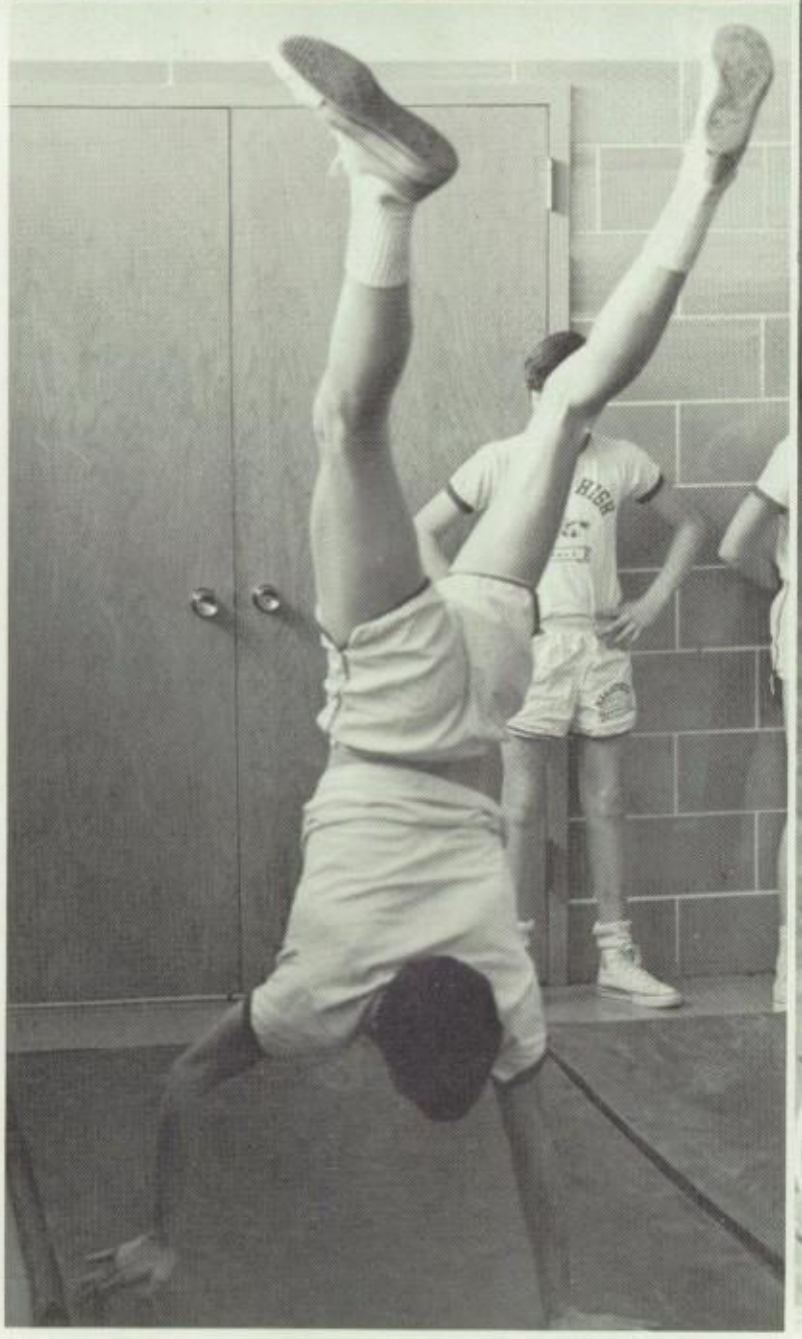


Hope his answers are right . . .
Voila . . . step one—crepe suzette.

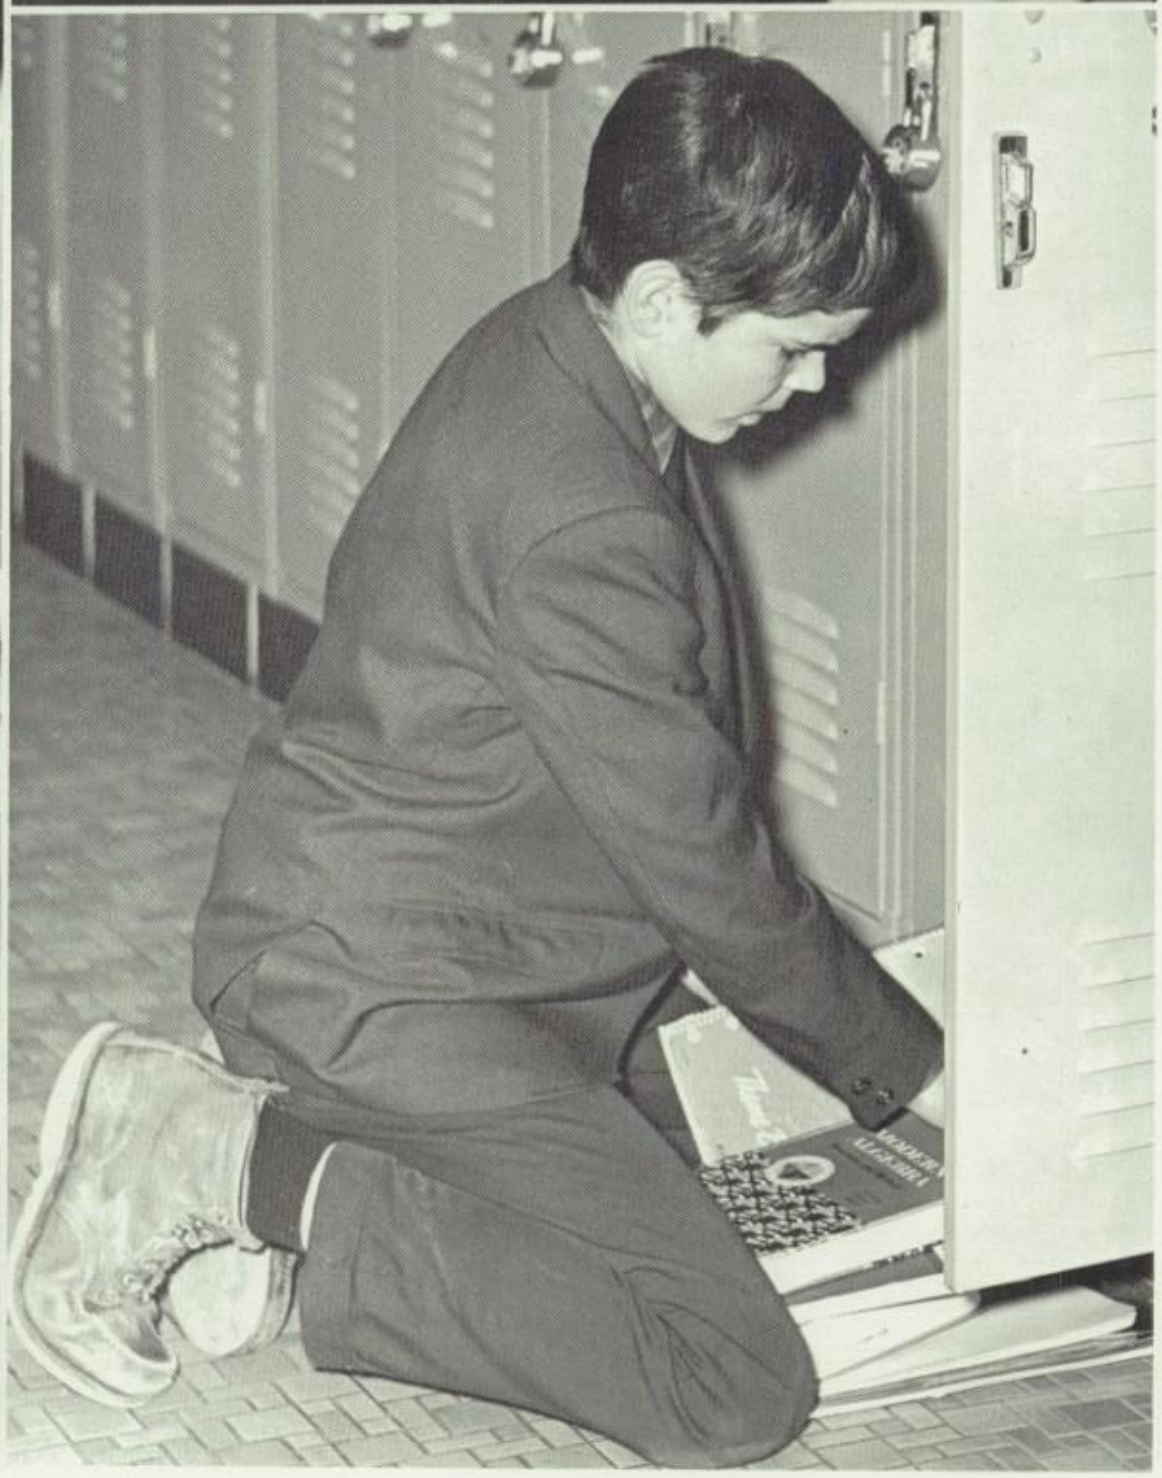
Ohhhhh! My head . . . . . .



See the wiggly tail???



Cool! Cool!



Hate these ?0!X"$ bottom lockers . . . .

PLAINSMAN STAFF

Co-editors James Bohac and Neal Foley.

The Marist PLAINSMAN is published for the students as a memoir, a "scrapbook" filled with memories of the past year. In the 1970 issue of the PLAINSMAN we attempted to show life at Marist for what it really is: the work, frustrations, accomplishments and honors. We attempted to set a precedent which we believe will be difficult to follow. We hope this yearbook portrays the past year as accurately as possible, and that you enjoy reading it as much as we enjoyed creating it.

We, the staff of the 1970 PLAINSMAN, would like to express our deep appreciation to those who have been such a help in our efforts: the Photo Club, coaches, and club moderators. We hope this publication meets the quality of all Marist activities.

Sincerely,

Neal J. Foley

The words THANK YOU in print cannot convey depth of expression. Yet there are many people to whom we owe a debt of thanks. We hope that they will accept their names in print as a worthy expression of our gratitude.

Bro. Vincent Colella, whose photographic artistry and patient generosity proved invaluable.

The photographers and staff of Walinger Studio for their faithful service.

Mr. Tony Guasti for the pictures on pages 35, 36, 39, 40, 41, 44, 47, 51, 52, 53, 63, 65, 86, 87, 168-173.

Finally, we wish to acknowledge the dedicated work of the 1970 PLAINSMAN staff. The absence of the senior members will be greatly felt next year. We know we have gained much from their friendship.
